Meeting with AXP management -Anna Marrs, President of Global Commercial Services

About American Express Global Commercial Services:

Global Commercial is one of Amex's three main business segments. The segment was the key focus of American Express's recent investor day on March 13, where the company discussed opportunities in Business-to-Business and Lending growth. Included in those opportunities discussed on investor day are targeting the Business-to-Business total addressable market of $19 trillion of annual transactions and $90 bil. of Small-Middle Enterprise spending.

About Anna Marrs:

Mrs. Marrs is President of the Global Commercial Services division at American Express. She joined American Express in September 2018 from Standard Chartered Bank, where she ran the ASEAN and South Asia region and was based in Singapore. She joined Standard Chartered from McKinsey & Company where she was a Partner in the Global Banking Practice in London. Earlier in her career she ran a financial information and technology company and worked for a hedge fund in New York.
